Past Events

The point dive that was scheduled for Sunday, February 11th, was cancelled due to a lack of divers. Marty Blake and Terri & John Molis met up in Swampscott and had breakfast at the Lincoln Landing. Following Breakfast, John and Terri went on up to Marblehead Light to look around. The weather for the day was ideal. All that was missing were people.

The non-point dive at Long Pond in Plymouth, set for Sunday, February 18th, was, like the point dive, a no go. Marty Blake, John Blackadar, Roy Chamberlain and John & Terri Molis met at the Hearth & Kettle Restaurant in Plymouth for a nice breakfast. Following breakfast the group proceeded to Long Pond. Conditions were great for an ice dive. Again, the only ingredients missing for the dive were people.

The Boston SCUBA Show, aka, the Fred Calhoun Show, took place on Saturday, February 24th. It was well attended and the presenters and their topics were informative and entertaining. At the completion of the show, Roy Chamberlain, Dave Clancy and several others stopped off at Kennedy's Rest. on the North Shore for a bite. Later on Saturday evening Roy had an open house at his home in Mardhfield where a number of Neptunes got together with Dave Clancy to catch up on what has been happening.

Upcoming Events

The Boston Sea Rovers Annual Clinic and show will be held this coming weekend, Sat. & Sun., March 3rd and 4th, at the Fairmont Copley Plaza, Boston. We will have a booth at the show and we could use some help from the membership over the weekend. Looking forward to seeing you at the show.

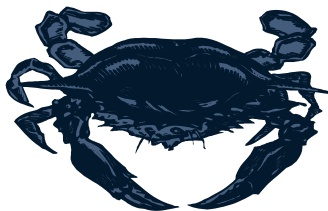

The Non-point dive for the month is scheduled for Sunday, March 18th, and the site is Peggity Beach, Scituate. We will meet for breakfast prior to the dive at the Gannett Grill at 8:00 A.M.

The Point dive for March is scheduled for Sunday, March 25th, and the site is Point Allerton, in Hull. We will meet for breakfast at 8:00 A. M. at Star's Rest at the rotary on Rte. 3A in Hingham

Moving ahead to April, the non-point dive will be on Sunday, April 22nd, and the site is Brant Rock in Marshfield. Breakfast location to be announced in next newsletter.

The Point dive for April is scheduled for Sunday, April 29th, and once again the club has decided to give Marblehead Light a go of it. This will be the last chance to dive the Light until next Fall. Breakfast will be at Lincoln Landing, Swampscott.

Jeff Farinella, the owner of NorthAtlantic SCUBA in Marshfield, will be present at the Clubhouse on Tuesday, May 22nd, and will be making courtesy inspection of dive gear. Mark the date on your calendar. Bring your equipment by and get it checked out before the Summer season. John Molis has decided to put his culinary skills to the test and will be serving a chowder on this night. How can you go wrong? Free chowder and free gear inspection.

General Interest

A New Club Phone Line will be in service by the time you get this newsletter. The club will be testing out having a phone line with information available about dives and other club activities. You will also be able to leave a message if you have information you think may be important to the club. The phone number is 781-803-DIVE, (781-803-3483).

The Bay State Council Treasure Hunt is on Sunday, May 20th. And it will be held at Stage Fort Park in Gloucester. Make plans to attend and show your support for the Council. More information will follow in the next newsletter.

The Bay State Council of Divers will conduct a general meeting on Wednesday, March 14th, at the clubhouse. Current projects with which the Council is involved are the Flag Law issue in Gloucester, The Artificial Reef Project and The Council Treasurer Hunt.

Wreckhunter.net the web site created by Dave Clancy is a terrific resource for dive information. The site has over 200 pages of information and it is easily accessible through the site navigator located on the home page. Dave also has a message board which is available for all visitors. The site includes many links to fit everyone's needs. It is a site worth adding to your favorites.
